6. PRESENTATIONS

Deborah Gurney and Nancy Duncan gave a PowerPoint presentation on Dancing Classrooms: Teaching Children to Take a Bow. This program helps students develop positive self-esteem and respect for fellow classmates. It instills discipline and coordinates with our school district's CHARACTER COUNTS! program.

Presentation:
Dancing
Classrooms
Program

A project of the American Ballroom Theatre, Dancing Classrooms develops students' social and emotional learning through the use of lingual and body language. The program helps students to develop self and social awareness, responsible decision-making and social skills. It also addresses dance standards - both cultural and historical.

Qs & As:

- Grade involvement?
- Coordination of the dance program?
- Cost? Search for funding sources?

Answer: - Cost is approximately $16 thousand; $2 per child

- Timeframe for South Country?

Answer: - By the end of January

- Parent and community involvement?
- Using classroom time for this program? Students suffer academically?

Answer: - This program helps students to improve academically

- Engaging/involving the entire class?

Teacher: when does the Board expect to vote on this item?

Response: [Board President Gregory Miglino]: The Dancing Classroom program will be included on the next Board of Education meeting agenda.
