9-period day as promised, instead of using that venue to talk about board members who are stealing election signs.

Public Participation [Cont'd]

Gregory Miglino: alerted Claudia V. of the recent changes in administration on July 1st, stating that administrators were forced to make "hard decisions" because of finances; Mr. Miglino apologized for the late notification and said that a message was posted on the district's website; he also noted that the new business manager has had only sixteen days to evaluate our financial position, and that the previous business manager gave the Board erroneous information about the availability of funds for programs; stated that he expects a 9-period day as well as an alternative school to be implemented at the start of the next school year.

Board Discussion: re: parents whose children's schedules would be affected; students' schedule adjustments; implementing better methods of communication; the public's perception; and receiving erroneous information about availability of funds.

Raymond Walsh: spoke of responding in a reactive manner, thus far; said future decisions, on his part, would be timelier.

Debbie H: stated she did not understand Ray Walsh's email message; asked if AP classes will be offered? Q re: start-times?

Response: AP classes will be offered.

Nelson Briggs: [High School]: 7:15 a.m. start-time; 1:53 p.m. dismissal time; Activities offered from 2:05 p.m. to 2:35 p.m.; then sports begin.

Raymond Walsh: spoke of extending the actual periods for a more "organized day" and for "more instructional time".

Resident: Q re: whether approval for a dance team was given?

Gregory Miglino and Carl Moodt: still examining rules governing Teams and Clubs; checking with Section Eleven [11].

Nikki Jaeger: asked the Board whether all members received her email message? Said she is "discouraged" about resolutions H and I, pertaining to busing for PreK students; alleges that 18.5% of the budget has been allocated for busing 144 PreK students, and that this translates to $130 thousand.; said this is "discriminatory, unfair and unethical".

Response: Carl Moodt: agrees that busing has always been a large portion of the budget, but not just for PreK.

Resident: Q re whether all students attending PreK have access to busing?

Resident: Q re: opting out - pertaining to uniforms? and Q re: construction schedule at the Middle School?

Carl Moodt: installation lockers is an issue; work in the Science Lab has been completed; and the new auditorium will be ready for Christmas.

Resident: Q re: termination of TA [referenced item on Personnel agenda]?

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION:

Public Participation

Nikki Jaeger: voiced her disapproval of the Board's vote on agenda items H and I; said the Board's action proves to her that education is not a priority, and that giving the approval to pay $130 thousand for busing for students to attend a PreK program is fiscally irresponsible.

Gregory Miglino: stated that although resolutions H and I were passed, the Board did not unanimously approve them, thereby leaving the possibility of revisiting these issues at a later date. He also stated that this matter will receive serious consideration for the next school year.
